IF MEXICO INTERFERES WITH POLICY, THEN WAR

The American Reply to Carranza's Note was Handed to the Mexican Ambassador at Washington—The Note Positively Refused to Comply With Carranza's Demands to Withdraw the American Troops and Makes it Plain That if Carranza Troops Interfere With U. S. Troops in Mexico in Search of Bandits, War Will be the Result. Americans at Mexico City Prepare to Leave for Vera Cruz by Special Train—Both Sides are Getting Ready—American Warships are Sent to Mexican Waters.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 20.—The American note flatly rejecting the Carranza demand for the withdrawal of American troops and rebuking the Carranza government for the discourteous tone and temper of his last communication, was handed to Mexican Ambassador Arrendondo today.

The note concludes with the statement that if the defacto government continues to ignore its obligations and carries out its threat to defend its territory by appeal to arms against American troops, the gravest consequences will follow. "While this government would deeply regret such result," the note says, "it can not recede from its settled determination to maintain the national rights and perform its duty in preventing further invasion of the territory of the United States, and removing the peril which Americans along the international boundary have borne so long with patience and forbearance." The long continued outrages against Americans and their property, both in Mexico and on the border, are reviewed in the note, and warning was given that troops will be kept in Mexico until such time as the defacto government performs the duty which the United States has sought in pursuing the bandits. "I am reluctant to be forced to the conclusion which might be drawn from the circumstances," Secretary Lansing declares, "that the defacto government, in spite of the crimes committed and the sinister doings of Villa followers, did not and does not now intend that these outlaws should be captured, destroyed or dispersed by American troops, or at the request of this government, by the Mexican troops." The purposes of the United States toward Mexico, which were questioned in the last Mexican note, are announced in the following language:—"If a denial is needed that this government has any ulterior motives in its diplomatic relations, or has countenanced the activities of American sympathizers and the interventionist press, I am glad most emphatically to deny it. It is, however, common knowledge that the Mexican press is more active than the United States press in endeavoring to inflame the two peoples against each other."

Hunger Swells Army.

(By Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, June 20.—Hunger is swelling the ranks of Carranza's new army, according to Americans arriving today who said the old men were unable to stand erect, and that 10-year-old boys are joining on promises of food and clothing.

Special Train for Americans.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 20.—Special Agent Rogers at Mexico City notified the state department today he was arranging for a special train to take Americans from the city to Vera Cruz.

Uneasy at Del Rio.

(By Associated Press.)
Del Rio, Texas, June 20.—Although nothing reliable developed today in the reported attack on this town by Mexicans from the interior, the uneasiness at Las Vacas, opposite here, caused the officers to believe an attack was actually imminent. Precautions were then taken accordingly.

Funston Wants Troops.

(By Associated Press.)
San Antonio, Texas, June 20.—General Funston today requested the war department to send him as soon as possible a large part of the militia to be stationed along the Mexican boundary line "from Brownsville to the Pacific coast." He did not make public the number requested, but said he wanted enough.

Washington, June 20.—After today's cabinet meeting Secretary Lansing said the Mexican situation was unchanged.

SENSATIONAL TRIAL IN FORT WORTH

Man and Wife Charged With Killing a Rooming House Keeper.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 20.—The trial of Charles and Katherine Harrison, the former 21 and the latter a 16-year-old girl, for the killing of W. L. Warren, a rooming-house keeper, on a lonely road near Fort Worth on December 23, 1915, was set for trial today in the Sixty-seventh District Court. The "unwritten law" was expected to be the defense. The cases will be tried separately, it was stated, the one against the girl being taken up first.

Mrs. Harrison claimed that she killed Warren because he wronged her. On the day of the killing, according to testimony submitted in the examining trial in the form of the girl's confession, she and Harrison, whom she married the day following, asked Warren to take an automobile trip. The trio went in the direction of Benbrook's suburb. According to the confession, Mrs. Harrison stopped the car on the pretense of engine trouble, and asked Warren and her husband to get out. When Warren left the car, the confession read, Mrs. Harrison shot him, and placed the body in the woods nearby.

The cause of Warren's death remained a mystery for several months. It was not cleared until a chum of the Harrison girl revealed to the police that Mrs. Harrison had killed Warren. The chum, Lois Guinn, said Mrs. Harrison told her on the day of the killing that she had shot Warren, because "the law would have taken him in hand anyhow," for the alleged wrong he had done her.

Miss Guinn said she kept the secret as long as she could, and while the police were investigating Warren's death, Miss Guinn informed them of Mrs. Harrison's secret.

When the indictment charging murder was returned, Mrs. Harrison's parents entered a contest as to the right of the criminal district court to try their daughter, they claiming that she was under 16 years of age, and should be tried in the county juvenile court. Her age was also to have been, it was understood, one of the chief factors in defense in connection with the alleged violation by the man she killed.

Developments in the case were followed with interest, due to the apparent nonchalance of the youthful couple to the gravity of the crime they were charged with committing.

COTTE-SANDERS.

Mr. S. A. Cottle of Brenham and Miss Ellen Sanders of This City Wed.

Quite a surprise was sprung on the many friends of Miss Ellen Sanders of this city and Mr. S. A. Cottle of Brenham yesterday afternoon when the announcement was made that they were married. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Doane went to Brenham Sunday in their car and Miss Sanders accompanied them, the entire party just going over to spend the day, but after Miss Sanders and Mr. Cottle held a caucus Sunday evening she changed her mind about coming back to Bryan and telephoned for her trunk and, after a few preliminary arrangements on yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock the couple were married by Rev. Mr. Cook of the Methodist Church of Brenham at the pastor's home.

Miss Sanders was reared in Bryan and has been connected with the dry goods firm of W. J. Coulter for the past three years and is a young woman of the highest type, her friends being limited to those who know her. Mr. Cottle recently went to Brenham from this city and is manager of the Hotel Anthony of that city. He is a young man of sterling worth and with his geniality makes friends wherever he goes.

The Eagle joins the many friends of this young couple in wishing them a happy and joyous life together.

CARD OF THANKS.

Dear Friends: We take this means of thanking all for your sympathy and many thoughtful and tender ministrations during the illness and death of our husband and father, J. M. Hanna. Mrs. Mattie E. Hanna and children.

Only One Mexican Fighting Craft in Pacific Waters—Several Vessels Now at Stations.

San Pedro, Cal., June 20.—Admiral Winslow, commanding the Pacific fleet, had orders Monday to select available vessels and send them to join other warships now stationed at ports on the west Mexican coast. It was expected that the cruiser San Diego, the admiral's flagship, would sail for San Diego at once.

The protected cruiser Milwaukee and the destroyers Hull, Hopkins and Truxton are in San Diego harbor.

Two more cruisers, the South Dakota and Maryland, are under orders to steam from the Bremerton, Wash., navy yard to San Diego.

The only Mexican warship on the west coast is the old gunboat Guerrero.

She was fearfully burned before help reached her and is now in a precarious condition.

BANISHED EDITOR BACK TO MEXICO

Laredo Citizens, Resenting Articles Published, Marched Him Across the Rio Grande.

(From Friday's Daily)
Laredo, Texas, June 16.—Thirty American residents of Laredo, mostly business men, Thursday afternoon led Leo D. Walker, Mexican, and managing editor of El Progreso, a Mexican newspaper published here, into Mexico at the point of a revolver and ordered him, under penalty of death, not to return to the United States. El Progreso has recently contained editorials abusing the United States government.

The committee also notified other attaches of El Progreso to cease publication immediately. Officers had not taken cognizance of the action Thursday night.

MEXICAN SITUATION IS NEAR BREAKING POINT

So Tense is the Mexican Situation President Wilson on Sunday Called Out the Militia of Every State in the Union—A Hundred Thousand Troops Are Busy Today in 45 States Mobilizing and Getting Ready for Service on the Mexican Border—Washington Says the Irritation is Increasing at Many Points—Carranza Says if War Comes He Will Lead the Mexican Troops.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 19.—One hundred thousand members of the militia of fifty-nine states are concentrating in their armories and home stations today preparatory to being sent immediately to mobilization camps following President Wilson's calling out order of yesterday. Drilling and recruiting is the first work on the program, following which they will be mustered into the federal service and sent to the border, relieving thirty thousand regulars who will then be made available for use in Mexico.

CARRANZA WILL LEAD.

(By Associated Press.)
Mexico City, June 19.—Carranza, addressing a mass meeting in front of his residence last night, urged the citizens to refrain from hostile acts against Americans and declared he had hopes of arranging the differences between the two nations, "but if war is necessary, I will lead you myself," he said.

ORDER AMERICANS OUT.

(By Associated Press.)
Galveston, Texas, June 19.—The Mexican government in the State of Yucatan issued a proclamation ordering all Americans out of Mexico and declaring a state of war is existing between the two countries, according to passengers arriving today on the Norwegian steamer Nils from Progreso. Americans are being taken aboard an American gunboat at Progreso.

Note Goes Forward.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 19.—Secretary of State Lansing announced today the reply to the Carranza demand for the withdrawal of Americans would go forward to Mexico City today. Secretary Lansing also declared the American policy in Mexico remained unchanged. In regard to the general situation in Mexico, Secretary Lansing allowed it to become known that the dispatches to the state department showed increasing irritation in many sections on the border. The text of the dispatches is withheld.

The reply, as predicted, rejects Carranza's demands and, while the whole country is astir today with the mobilization of the National Guard, President Wilson directed the dispatch of the note immediately. The note sharply rebukes Carranza for the unwarranted charges and insinuations of bad faith contained in his communication.

Secretary of State Lansing declined to say how the note would be sent. It may be given out for publication late today. It is understood to contain between seven and ten thousand words.

First Clash Reported.

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 19.—Communications from the Mexican embassy announcing there had been a clash between a boat crew from the gunboat Annapolis and Carranza soldiers at Mazatlan yesterday and asking that in the present tense situation no men be landed in Mexico from American warships under any circumstances, were delivered to the state department today by an attaché of the Mexican embassy.

Men Slept on Arms.

(By Associated Press.)
Columbus, N. M., June 19.—Notwithstanding General Trevino's threat, General Pershing said he was daily laying plans for quick dashes north and south at first sign of hostilities. His plans, observers said, are to gain possession of the Mexico and Northwestern Railroad, which commands the territory adjacent to his lines of communications. The men slept on their arms last night.

CENTER FIGHT ON SUBMISSION ISSUE

M.H. Wolfe of Dallas Elected Chairman of Executive Committee of Seven to Direct Campaign.

Fort Worth, Texas, June 14.—After a day of much speechmaking, during which a vast number of topics were touched upon, including every angle of the prohibition question and many recent political developments in the State, the conference of prohibition democrats Tuesday afternoon finally decided to wage a straight out and out campaign in behalf of the submission to the people of the State by the Thirty-fifth Legislature of a constitutional amendment providing for statewide prohibition.

M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, prominent cotton man, was elected chairman of the executive committee of seven, which will direct the campaign, and, upon his urgent plea that the campaign be concentrated upon the one proposition of submission, leaving for future consideration the question of national prohibition and kindred subjects, the conference voted to leave the direction of fight for submission in the national prohibition and kindred direction, of the fight for submission in the hands of the committee, the persons attending the conference agreeing to support the committee in whatever it undertakes and to urge their home people to lend the same co-operation.

Other members of the executive committee chosen include former Congressman O. W. Gillespie, Fort Worth; C. A. Sanford, Sherman; J. M. Harris, Austin; Clarence Gilmore, Wills Point; W. C. Rowland, Temple. The chairman was authorized to name two more members of the committee when he has had opportunity to pick the men.

An effort will be made to organize the State by counties and precincts in time to get every democrat in the State who favors submission to the polls on July 22, for it was universally conceded that if submission failed there would be no chance to vote on the larger question of statewide prohibition next year.

CONTEST CLOSING DRAWING NEAR

Contests for Free Scholarships to A. & M. Short Course Will Close on June 30.

The scholarship contest, inaugurated by the Womens Club of this city, which gives free scholarships at the A. & M. College short course this summer, closes Friday, June 30.

An unusual interest has been manifested in this contest from its very beginning, there being about forty names enrolled upon the list, and many others came in later. It has already proven a benefit to all, for it has aroused a greater interest in the art of home canning, home gardening and the care of poultry. All cannot win the scholarships offered as prizes, but all share in the benefits derived from competing for them, and this benefit is not confined to that individual alone but to the members of her home, her neighborhood and county as well.

Mrs. Albert Buchanan, the retiring president, is still in charge of this scholarship contest, as it is a continuation of this year's work of the club. All committees to arrange for the success of the closing day, June 30, will be announced next week, and all contestants are reminded to watch The Eagle for the program of the day, and other important announcements.

This work as undertaken by the women of our town and county is a worthy one, and one from which only good and real benefit to all can be derived, and it is hoped that the people of Bryan will join with the tireless, faithful women of the Woman's Club in making the closing day, Friday, June 30, a splendid and successful event.

COMMERCIAL CLUB DIRECTORS MEET.

The regular weekly meeting of the Commercial Association directors was held this morning in the club rooms. Very little business of importance was brought up. The matter of Bryan securing from the United States government one of the five cotton grading stations to be established in Texas was announced and is referred to in another column. A communication from the newly elected secretary, Mr. W. A. McElroy, was read in which he stated that he had tendered his resignation to the Board of Trade at Gilmer and that same had been accepted and that he would be in Bryan the first of July to take up his duties. Bills against the association were audited and ordered paid.

CHAIRMAN M'COMBS FIRED FIRST SHOT

Called Democratic Convention to Order and Takes a Few Shots at the Republicans.

St. Louis, Mo., June 14.—In calling the democratic national convention to order at noon today, Wm. F. McCombs, chairman of the democratic national committee, said:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the convention: We are in an atmosphere of victory. We meet to celebrate the marvelous achievements of the Democratic party since it came into power and to place a milestone upon the path of its future success.

The republican party for years deceived the country. Now it is deceiving itself. In its platform it offers pulchritudinous promises—but with vacuous intent.

"It promises the country in the main what the democratic party has already done or is in the process of doing, saving always, the bogus god, 'protection.' It has cloaked its iniquity with a judicial robe, but the cloven hoof of special interest still protrudes.

"We have recently witnessed the spectacle of two great American parties at Chicago putting self-glorification in place of national honor; republicanism and progressivism, so called, in place of our only 'ism'—Americanism.

"We have witnessed the drab spectacle of two groups of men trading principles like competitors in a fish market, in the hope that some compromise would win public support. They have not come together—they have fallen out over the 'swag.' The result is inevitable, 'divided they fall.' We are proud in the thought that 'united we stand.' We welcome the pent-up Americanism of the real progressives individually to our ranks, offering them a haven in principle. Their leader has abandoned them.

"This is a crucial hour in the history of the world, an hour when everyone should see whether his conscience squares with the periods of dramatic episode when this country resolves to maintained peace with honor.

"The democratic party, in the face of vicious attacks, has maintained this great American ideal. While for peace it has worked for sound and powerful preparedness. It has maintained dignity in the face of circumstances which might have drawn it into the vortex of a world destruction. It has maintained friendly relations throughout the world; it has been true to the spirit of America. The country has found that its confidence has been well bestowed. The democratic party has proven itself a party of principle, a party of constructive ability, a party of performance. It has proved that ideals can be realized. United we stand for America!

"Ladies and gentlemen, the Elephant is dead; the Moose is dead. Long live the American Eagle!"

COTTON CLASSER COMES TO BRYAN

Commercial Association With Colonel Ousley Gets Cotton Classer for Brazos County Farmers.

A standard cotton grader, which is furnished by the United States, has been secured for the City of Bryan and the farmers of Brazos County. Colonel Clarence Ousley, head of the extension department of the A. & M. College, and the Commercial Association of Bryan are those who deserve the credit for this new enterprise. There will be five of these classing stations in Texas this year and this city is one of the chosen few. The object of the classing station is for the farmers or any one who has cotton to sell to take the samples of same to the man in charge of the station and get it graded so that he can get an idea as to what it is worth. After same has been graded he will be told the market price for the grade he has and can figure out exactly what he should get for the staple.

BANDIT DE LA ROSA WAS CAPTURED

(From Wednesday's Daily) Mexico City, June 14.—The foreign office Tuesday notified James Linn Rodgers, representative of the United States government, that the bandit chieftain Louis De La Rosa had been captured. The news came to the foreign office in a telegram from the military commandant in the State of Tamaulipas.

ATTACKED OUR TROOPS WITHOUT ANY LOOTING

Another Mexican Raid Has Been Made Into Texas, Three American Soldiers Are Dead and Four Others Wounded—Six Dead Mexicans Were Found After the Fight—Major Gray Is Pursuing the Bandits and May Follow Them Into Mexico—It Was a Straight Out Attack on the Troops and No Attempt Was Made to Loot—Col. Pedro Lujan, a Villa Leader, Has Been Captured—Another Punitive Expedition May Be Sent Into Mexico in Pursuit of Bandits.

(By Associated Press.) Laredo, Texas, June 15.—One hundred Mexican bandits, crossing the Rio Grande at 2 o'clock this morning at San Ignacio, 40 miles southeast of here, attacked two troops of the Fourteenth Cavalry, killing two and wounding five Americans. Six Mexicans were found dead and their clothing was wet, indicating they had just forded the river. Major Gray, commanding the cavalry, after half an hour's fight, pursued the bandits south on the American side of the river and may follow them into Mexican territory. The names of the dead could not be learned at Fort McIntosh here on account of lack of wire communication in the district where the bandits are being pursued. The Mexicans did not try to raid the town, but made a direct and premeditated attack on the soldiers, expecting to find a smaller body of troops than was there. The Mexicans were dressed in peon garb but were exceptionally well armed.

Private Minaden, who was wounded in the San Ignacio fight, died this morning.

DAVE JOLLY ANNOUNCES.
The Eagle is authorized to announce Dave Jolly as a candidate for constable of Precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the July democratic primary.

The Eagle does not need to tell the voters who Dave Jolly is, as he has lived in the county all his life and in Bryan for a number of years, giving him a personal acquaintanceship with all the voters of the precinct.

Mr. Jolly has had quite a large experience as a peace officer, having served as a deputy under Sheriff Conlee and also as deputy city marshal. Mr. Jolly's work as an officer was highly satisfactory to his superiors, and also to the people. He is quiet, careful, not excitable, but absolutely without fear in the discharge of his duties. He has the detective instinct,

Note to Carranza Ready.
(By Associated Press.) Washington, June 15.—Secretary of State Lansing laid before President Wilson today the completed draft of the note to General Carranza replying to his demand that the American troops be withdrawn. The note will not be sent until next week. It is understood the note flatly denies the request to withdraw the troops until Carranza shows he can control the situation.

May Send in More.
(By Associated Press.) San Antonio, Texas, June 15.—Whether another punitive expedition enters Mexico depends on Major Gray to pick up the trail of the bands who attacked San Ignacio today, which General Funston characterized as "typical De La Rosa tactics—a night attack and then scatter like quail." General Funston is confident Major Grant has enough troops to deal with the raiders.

the instinct to ferret out crime in a marked degree and has some very fine work to his credit while serving as an officer.

Mr. Jolly is also a good man and citizen, quiet, sober and worthy whatever confidence may be reposed in him. If elected he promises the best service he is capable of rendering by being at all times on duty, faithfully discharging his every duty, treating everybody fairly and squarely and playing no favorites regardless of financial condition or social standing. In other words, he proposes to be absolutely impartial.

The Eagle takes pleasure in submitting the name and claims of Mr. Jolly to the democratic voters of the

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION ON FIRST BALLOT

There Were No Names Mentioned in the Convention Except Wilson and Marshall and They Were Nominated Unanimously by Acclamation—The Platform Endorses the Wilson Administration, Recounts the Things Accomplished Under Democratic Rule and Declares for Principles in Accord With the Views of the President.

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—At 11:52 last night Woodrow Wilson and Thomas Riley Marshall were nominated by acclamation as the standard bearers of the democratic party in the first night session of the democratic national convention. No ballots were taken, the delegates simply roared "Aye" when their names were called. Because the rules committee was not ready to report, the convention adjourned at 12:30 last night to 11 this morning.

Platform Outline.
(By Associated Press.) Coliseum, St. Louis, June 16.—After a short preamble the platform opens with the brief statement, "We endorse the Wilson administration; it speaks for itself."

In turn the platform chronicles the accomplishments within the administration, starting with the federal reserve banking system, the federal trade commission adjustment of the tariff, which is adequate for revenue under peace conditions, advancement of the parcel post, and better rights for working men.

The platform asks for the immediate development of the foreign trade of the United States, citing a merchant marine as a primary factor.

The platform condemns those persons of divided allegiance who seek to foment internal discord and strife, "for the advancement of the interest of any foreign power," and condemns specifically all alliances or combinations of individuals, "conspiring for the purpose of embarrassing the government."

SOME THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

In France all medical prescriptions are written in the language of the country.

Peat powder has been experimented with on some of the Swedish state railways as a fuel for the locomotives, and it is said, has been found as effective as anthracite coal.

California wine growers have been advised to go to the Indian market, where the supply of wine has been cut off by the war in Europe.

A company has been organized in Spain to do a general wireless tele-

Preparedness was treated briefly in a declaration for an adequate army for the protection of the nation's rights, continuous development of the navy and an adequate reserve of citizens trained to arms.

Under the head of international relations, it says the democratic party has held to the old path of neutrality and believes the United States should join in a world court to maintain inviolate the open use of the highways of the seas.

It declares for Pan-American concord and bases the Mexican policy simply on the Monroe Doctrine.

The Mexican plank also says our troops should of necessity remain in Mexico until order is restored, although the party is against intervention and subjugation.

The suffrage plank reads: "Recommend the extension of suffrage franchise to women of the country by states upon the same terms as to men."

Discussing labor, the platform declares the party's faith in the seaman's act and favors an effective federal child labor law, and the creation of a federal bureau of safety.

Ferguson Objects.
(By Associated Press.)

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—Governor Ferguson of Texas was a member of the committee of four which submitted a minority report on the suffrage plank in the democratic platform, declaring that suffrage was a question of state sovereignty and that federal endorsement would be a violation of that honored principle of democracy.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION.

The ordering out of the militia of all the states of the Union by the president, and the order coming on Sunday as it did, is proof that Mr. Wilson regards the Mexican situation as critical. The latest stand taken by Carranza in ordering our troops in Mexico not to move except to move out, and the summoning of all the militia, look like the storm is about to break. It has been brewing for a long time and its coming is not unexpected.

It looks like a great pity for the United States to have to go into Mexico and kill those poor, benighted, ignorant people, but it is like the correction of a disobedient child. To inflict punishment grieves the parent, but it is necessary for the child's good. Mexico can never have a stable form of government under present conditions. We must teach them the doctrine of "benevolent assimilation." The leaders in that country who have caused all the trouble, must be humbled and brought under complete subjection. Mexico must be given a new system of land distribution. The great estates go back to the government and be opened to settlement under the rigid rules of home ownership. The masses of the people must be given an opportunity to own homes and enjoy the privileges of citizenship on an equality with the nobility. Then school houses should be built on every hill, in every valley that the veil of ignorance may be lifted from Mexico. With this done present conditions would pass away, a new era would dawn in Mexico. Civilization and enlightenment would take the place of ignorance and superstition; agriculture, mining, stock raising and industry of every kind would take on new life, the masses would feel a thrill of renewed energy, would share in the common prosperity of the country, hope would be rekindled in their hearts and Mexico would soon be a nation capable of self-government.

This is the task before the United States. The steps necessary to bring this desired condition about, now look as if they must be severe steps, but they must be taken. May justice prevail and the results accomplished be good.

A STRAW FORECAST.

Straw votes do not always show which way the wind blows. But even though they don't, they still are interesting: perchance valuable in that they give off indications such as to spur campaign managers to fresh activities and inspire candidates to persist or withdraw. It was no expectation of influencing the senatorial campaign that induced Editor Harrison of the Baylor County Banner to take a straw vote from the Texas newspaper persons on the recent press excursion between El Paso and Cloudcroft. The request was that the voters should state their beliefs rather than their personal sentiments—in other words, it was not to be an exhibition of editorial preferences, but of editorial predictions as regards the outcome of the preliminary senatorial primary. Printed cards were passed throughout the train, with the explanation that each participant should state what his conviction was as to the comparative positions of the candidates named on the cards. Responses were taken up from 157 editors, after sufficient time for due consideration, with the result: Brooks was given first place by 50 editors, Culberson by 44, Colquitt by 32, Campbell by 27, Henry by four. Brooks was given second place by 46, Culberson by 34, Colquitt by 34, Campbell by 26, Henry by 17. Judge Riddle was assigned a place in the running by several, but not around the top. The editors who participated in this symposium of opinion represented every quarter of Texas, and the result of their combined judgment is interesting—but not final. The election should be held as called, notwithstanding the editors have already skimmed the cream off the returns.—State Press.

The editor of The Eagle was present when the vote referred to was taken, and knows that it was a fair square proposition. When the cards were distributed they were thoroughly explained and each editor was told to vote his judgment and not his sentiment in the senatorial race. That is, vote as to how he believed it would go, and not as to how he wanted it to go. The result is beyond question the consensus of opinion of the press of the state, expressed by editors from every section who are supposed to have their fingers on the public pulse.

LANSING WILL BE PRESIDENT FOR A DAY.

Secretary of State Lansing is to be the next president of the United States—president for one day—and the whys and wherefores of this situation is thus explained by the New York Tribune:

"The next president of the United States will be Robert Lansing, of New York, the present secretary of state.

"This is not in the nature of a wild political prediction, nor is it the inauguration of a boom for a democratic 'dark horse.' It is merely the statement of a fact which, barring the death or resignation of Secretary Lansing, is as certain as anything can be.

"Mr. Lansing's term of office does not depend upon the action of any political convention; it is likewise irrespective of any primary or direct election. In point of fact, it dates back to 1886, when congress passed an act, providing that in the event of death, removal, resignation or inability of both the President and the vice president of the United States, the secretary of state shall act as president.

"March 4, 1917, will fall upon a Sunday, and it is contrary to all precedent, although not in opposition to any law, to hold an inauguration on Sunday. Therefore the incoming chief executive will take the oath of office and commence his term shortly after noon on March 5. President Wilson's term commenced at noon on March 4, 1913; therefore, according to the constitution, which defines the term of a president as 'four years,' his tenure of office will be over at noon on March 4, and, even if he is elected to succeed himself, he cannot take the oath of office until noon on the following day. Vice President Marshall, of course, is under the same disability as the president. Therefore, the secretary of state, Mr. Lansing, will be president of the United States for twenty-four hours and some minutes elapsing between noon on Sunday, March 4, and the time that the new president takes the oath of office on the following day.

"This brief term of office is not a mere formality. It is an actual occupation of the power of president, with all his authorities and prerogatives. Mr. Lansing—President Lansing for the day—will be empowered to occupy the White House, to issue pardons, to attend to all the other business of which the chief executive has control and to ride to the capitol, should he desire, as the outgoing president on inauguration day."

It is stated by those posted on the cotton situation that by the time this year's crop begins to move the entire supply or surplus of old cotton will be exhausted. If this be true, and there is not the least reason to doubt it, and the new crop does not have to come in competition with any surplus of old cotton, there is no reason why cotton this fall should not be higher than in many years. With a careful marketing of both cotton and seed the farmers will beyond question reap a rich harvest from this year's crop.

Rev. Robert Van Meigs, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Muskogee, has announced that he will open a Sunday picture show, to head off the devil, who has been leading numerous souls on the turnpike to damnation.—Fort Gibson New Era.

It is argued, and no doubt with great truth, that Sunday moving picture shows here in Texas were emptying the churches and proving to be the greatest possible ally of the devil.

The Eagle's Minter Springs correspondent speaks enthusiastically of the good road work being done in that community and says when they are completed there will be no such accident as a preacher's car being bogged in the sand a mile away from the church. The people of the rural districts will appreciate the good roads more than all others when they have once had an opportunity of giving them a trial.

The Eagle editor heard the officers of the city compliment the colored people on the excellence of their deportment on the day and night of their emancipation celebration. This is certainly to their credit and they should be commended for it.

Berries! Berries! 25 crates (24 pints to crate) at $1.25 on Thursday and Friday mornings. Nice clean berries, fine for preserving. Hensarling Mercantile Co.

It is estimated that 100,000,000 pairs of hosiery are wasted annually in the United States for the lack of a little darning. Lord give us more sock-darners, baby spankers and chicken-fryers, and fewer suffrage-seekers, hammock-swingers and gum-chewers.—Houston Post.

Amen!

No one has yet come across with an explanation of The Eagle's query as to how Texas can share in any rural credits law that has as a basis for credits the mortgaging of the home. Not only that, but no candidate has had the nerve to say he favored the repeal of the homestead law so as to make it possible for Texas homes to be mortgaged. The people of Texas should be alert and if any candidate for the legislature, congress or any State office favors such repeal, let him have it where the chicken got the axe.

The Russian drive, called by some the Russian Juggernaut, is pressing hard on Austria. The retreat of the great Russian army which began with nearly a million men, has steadily dwindled by capture and other losses until there is now hardly more than half a million. With Russia and Italy both at her throat, Austria will scarcely be able to withstand the terrible ordeal and unless Germany again comes forward with a fresh army, the finish of Austria is in sight.

The Eagle's correspondent from Tabor, in commenting on crop conditions in that locality, says it is to be hoped the farmers this fall will be able to haul corn to Bryan instead of having to haul corn out of Bryan. This is indeed a consummation devoutly to be wished and when this and many other prevailing conditions are reversed, the country will see prosperity and not before.

It is said the German losses in the present European war, are greater than the combined toll of war of all nations for two centuries.

American steel mills are receiving heavy orders for rails, wire and pig iron. The orders are mainly from Russia, France and Italy and shows that these countries are not contemplating an early ending of hostilities. In other words, they are preparing to fight it out to the bitter end.

DEMONSTRATION
AGENT'S GOODBYE

Goes to Other Fields, Thanks Friends for Co-operation and Reviews
Work Done in This County.

(From Monday's Daily)

In retiring from the position of operative Demonstration Work for county agent for the Farmers' Co-Brazos County, I do it with the greatest feeling of hesitancy and regret. For a person to go into a new field and take up an entirely new work after having lived and labored with and among one people the greater part of a good long life, it is no easy nor pleasant task to sever the ties of relationship that have been forming themselves and binding me closer to these people each day for all these years. Having been honored by these people with so many positions of public trust, I feel now that I can never repay them for it all, except it be with a lasting debt of gratitude with which my heart shall be filled as long as I live.

While I feel that I have come short of the full discharge of all these trusts, yet in retiring I feel that I have discharged them to the very best of my ability, and so well have I succeeded in this that I can truthfully state that I have never had one charge brought against me for derelictness in office. In regard to the position that I now resign, that of county agent for the demonstration work, will say that it is with special regret, from the fact that I have not been able to do all the good that I wanted to do. This is not on account of a feeling that I have failed to make an honest effort to do what I could, nor that I feel that I have been incapacitated to do the work efficiently, but it has come from the fact that I have been unable to get the full co-operation of some of the men, who I thought would, and yet think, should have stood the closest by me and rendered me the greatest service in making the work a greater success. After all I am very thankful that I have been enabled to do as much as I have done. It is gratifying indeed to note the many changes for the better that are to be seen on every hand—changes, many of which, were not thought of in the county prior to the time I took charge of the work a little over four years ago. At that time there was not one good dairy cow in the county to where there are now ten, and I believe I could truthfully say twenty-five. At that time there were less than ten cream separators, now there are more than a hundred. There was not a co-operative cream route thought of, today there are several, and will be more added very soon. Last fall and winter there were five big fat hogs owned by the farmers to where there was one four years ago. There has been a great increase in the importation of pure bred live stock of all kinds for breeding purposes. There was, outside of those at A. & M. College, one silo in the county; today there are twelve, and would have been fifty or more had it not been for the low price of cotton two years ago, and the storm of last August. The use of farm implements of the improved kinds, such as breaking plows, cultivators, riding planters, disc, section and other kinds of harrows and many other kinds have increased at least 500 per cent. Quite a large acreage of hill lands have been terraced in different parts of the county, and I would say in regard to terracing, that this work is just getting started, as I have already engaged to terrace hundreds of acres this coming fall. Numbers of woods pastures have been cleared up and cleaned out, proving itself in every instance to be one of the very best paying pieces of work that can be done on the farm. There are many other changes that could be named, but I will only name diversification, which has already been worth hundreds of thousands of dollars to the farmers of the county. As an evidence of the benefits of diversification I will say that during the spring of the first year that I had the work, at least half, and I am sure more than half, of my good friends where I would stop to stay all night would have to feed my horse with bought feed. This year, notwithstanding the storm of last August which destroyed at least one-third of the corn crop, my horse has been fed scarcely a time on feed that was not raised on the farm where I have stayed.

A large majority of farmers are seeing and considering their business in a very different way to what they did five years ago, and are profiting thereby.

Now, I am sure that some will want to know if I take to myself all the credit for these better changes and things. Not all of them, to be sure, but each and all of them have been advocated by me in season and out of season, in every nook and corner of this county, and all of them are here today while they were not here then, and in justice to me I believe that the most prejudiced man in the county could but accredit my work with a fair share of these better things.

In conclusion, I desire to state that when Colonel Ousley and Mr. Walton tendered me this position that I am now assuming, I told them that I would accept it only on one condition, and that was that they assure me that they supply Brazos County with a good strong man that would be able to carry on this good work efficiently. They assured me that this would be done, and I am glad indeed to announce that it has been done. Mr. C. L. Beason, whose services they have secured to begin at once, is a gentleman of the very best qualities. A man of thorough education, a man of full practical knowledge of farming as he is now and has been a farmer all his life. He has been county superintendent of public education, which gives him a thorough knowledge of the very intimate relationship that should exist between the demonstration agent or rather the work of the county agent and that of the rural teacher and county superintendent of public instruction.

So, I ask you as your friend to fall right in line and give this good man, not only a hearty welcome into your midst, for this I know you will do, but give him your encouragement and full co-operation in this great work. If you will do this he will be worth his weight in gold to the people every year that he continues among you.

Now, in conclusion, I want to thank each of you, all of you. No man has ever been treated more kindly and hospitably by any people than I have been by you in your fields as well as in your homes. I desire to repeat here, what I have said many times both publicly as well as privately, that you are the best, the kindest hearted and the most hospitable people to be found anywhere, but that you would not co-operate with me in this work as I had hoped you would and as I thought you should.

The demonstration and extension work have come to stay. The federal government as well as the thinking world have seen its benefits and unlimited possibilities, and there is no question but that it will go right on with increasing usefulness and popularity, and the county or the people that fails to take advantage of its opportunities will be standing in their own way and will soon fall far behind in the splendid onward and upward march of the industrial world. While my future work will be in other fields, I shall always take great pleasure in aiding my successor in every way that I can to help him to help you.

May God bless each one of you,
Your friend,
A. W. BUCANAN.

MINTER SPRINGS NEWS.

Work on the road from Koppe bridge to Wellborn is progressing nicely. A good foundation is being made ready for the gravel, and when that is applied there will be no such accident as a preacher's car being stalled in the sand a mile from the church. There is much pleasure in the anticipation of a good public highway and the profit side of the account will loom up large in the saving of vehicles and horse flesh, to say nothing of the delight experienced by the joy riders in knowing they will not be bogged up in a sand bed.

Church services were conducted at Minter Springs Church Saturday night and Sunday morning, by Rev. Riggs and Rev. Childress, and services by Rev. C. E. Bullock at 3:30 o'clock p. m. were greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Mr. John Dampier and Mrs. Nettie McMin, both of Wellborn, were united in marriage on the 18th inst. Rev. J. O. Riggs officiating at the ceremony which made as one, "Two souls with but a single thought; two hearts that beat as one."

Mr. and Mrs. Dampier have our sincerest congratulations, our best wishes for an ideal life. They will reside in Wellborn.

Crop prospects are much brighter now. Some of our neighbors are eating roasting ears, while there are other fields of corn in the first stages of growth. Cotton, which is usually full of blossoms and fruit at this season of the year, while looking healthy, still is small and will require regular seasons and yet the outlook is much brighter than for three years past. All plants have a good color and the rain has so far been coming just right since May 1, but the sun is of July intensity, and it requires courage to stay with and combat the foes of Mr. Farmer, whose soul must be possessed of patience, waiting for the early and latter rain, while he continues to coax from mother earth the fruits so necessary for the comfort and well being of the world. No other life is so strenuous, so barren of pleasure. No other toll so uncertain of profit to the worker than this much lauded life.

Down on the farm—sweet communion with nature is often interrupted by much language caused by the antics of a contrary mule, and a temperature something like a hundred in the shade, while there is no telling how high the mercury would soar in the open, and yet our souls thrill with delight each morning when we witness the miracle of his rising out of the cool pearl mists of the east, to begin over again his mission of healing and life-giving to all things. The sun is a great physician.

Bird lovers will be interested to know that we have this year more of the feathered songsters than usual, that is, for several years. Mocking birds, too, and they make grand orchestra entertainment free. They are a part of the silver lining to the drab cloud of life "down on the farm."

DEATH OF MRS. MARY LASKI.

One of Brazos County's Beloved Sisters Passes into Her Rest.

(From Saturday's Daily)

The death of Mrs. Mary Soule Laski this morning at 7 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Alice Cole, on East Mosely Street, terminated a ten days' illness, during which time the dear old lady had grown constantly weaker. She passed away without a struggle. There was that upon her face that spoke more eloquently than words could have done, of a spotless soul prepared to meet its Heavenly Father in peace.

She was born September 4, 1831, in Lounds County, Ala. When blooming into young womanhood she married Mr. John Hunter, who was killed during the war. To this union was born one child, Mrs. Alice Cole. In 1865 she was married to Mr. M. B. Laski. She and her husband moved to Brazos County in 1869. To this union were born four children, Mrs. Lena Reed of Marlin, Mrs. Lula Henry of Edge, Mrs. Minnie Foster of Wellborn and Mr. J. B. Laski of Lubbock, Texas.

Early in life she professed Christianity and united with the Free Baptist Church. Since that time she has ever lived a devoted Christian life. Her example has been an inspiration to her many friends and associates. Truly the world is better because of her having lived and labored in it.

In addition to her children, all of whom were present at the time of her death, she leaves behind her fifteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

As a reward for her life of usefulness she was permitted to live to the advanced age of 84 years and 10 months. She was the last member of her parent's family to cross the river into the great beyond.

The Eagle wishes to extend its sympathy to the bereaved ones and commend them to the tender mercies of God.

WILL ATTACK U. S. TROOPS IF ANY MOVE IS MADE

The Mexican Situation Is Fast Coming to a Crisis and Carranza Has Ordered General Pershing, Commanding the American Troops in Mexico, to Make No Move Except to Withdraw—If Any Move Is Made It Will Be the Signal for Attack by Carranza Troops. The United States Will Stand Pat and Not Change Its Policy—General Funston Is Not Alarmed Over the Situation Believing General Pershing Can Take Care of Himself.

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Texas, June 14.—Carranza having thrown down the gauntlet to the United States in advice to General Pershing, every preparation is being made along the border today for any eventuality. The officers and soldiers of the garrison here are kept closely in their quarters. The tension is noticeable on the Mexican side, where the civilians have armed themselves.

U. S. STANDS FIRM.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 17.—The warning from the Mexican commander that any move except the retirement of the United States troops would precipitate hostilities, will not change the purpose of the United States to keep the expedition in Northern Mexico, and the Mexican policy will remain unchanged. Secretary of State Lansing said the Carranza reply would not be sent today, awaiting details of the new developments which Carranza will be asked to explain.

Funston Not Alarmed.

(By Associated Press.)

San Antonio, Texas, June 17.—General Funston is not worried over General Trevino's declaration from Chihuahua last night that any movement east, west or south by General Pershing's troops would be considered the signal for an attack by Carranza soldiers, as he believes General Pershing is able to take care of himself. It may be necessary at any time for the leader of the punitive expedition to send small detachments in pursuit of outlaws that menace the outposts. Neither did Ricans' similar statement regarding the San Ignacio pursuit disturb General Funston, who said the search for bandits will continue and wherever a hot trail is found, the troops will take it. General Funston's fifty thousand troops along the border are so disposed that swift punitive action can be taken if invited by an overt act of Carranza's army.

Soldiers and Bandits Fight.

(By Associated Press.)

Brownsville, Texas, June 17.—Details of the fight between United States soldiers and bandits near San Benito last night were received today and show no Mexicans killed as at first reported. Thirty bandits made a surprise attack on a cavalry camp at sundown but fired wildly, hitting no one. The Americans dropped to the ground, returning the fire, although they could not see the attackers.

Struck Hot Trail.

(By Associated Press.)

Brownsville, Texas, June 17.—(Bulletin)—It was reported to Fort Duncan today that a troop of the Third Cavalry under Lieutenant Newman had struck a "hot trail" of Mexican bandits north of Brownsville. These are supposed to have been those attacking the United States soldiers last night.

Consuls Came Out.

(By Associated Press.)

Laredo, Texas, June 17.—Philip C. Hanna, United States consul general at Monterey, and one of the two remaining consuls in Mexico, accompanied by a half dozen Americans, arrived here today. He was reticent about his visit. "Everything is quiet down the line," he said.

Gavira Not Executed.

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Texas, June 17.—Reports that General Gavira, Carranza commander at Juarez, had been executed on his arriving at Mexico City on a treason charge for having conferred with General Pershing, were officially denied in a message to the Mexican consulate from General Obregon today.

Consul Ordered Out.

(By Associated Press.)

San Antonio, Texas, June 17.—The arrival in Laredo today of Consul Hanna from Monterey, developed the fact that the state department at Washington had ordered both him and John R. Silliman at Saltillo to return to the American side of the river.

Joe Lloyd and daughter, Miss Lillian of Reliance, were in the city this afternoon.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Washington, D. C., June 17.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent June 19 to 23, warm wave 18 to 22, cool wave 21 to 25. Temperatures are expected to average about normal during that week. Storms will be moderate till about June 21, when they will be near meridian 90, latitude 40. About and following that date the storm forces will increase and become dangerous. General and heavy rains are expected with these great storms in all southern and eastern sections, including in some sections, tornadoes and hail.

These great storms may be called the advance guard of the greatest storms of the year. From near June 20 to the close of July great and destructive storms will be frequent near and south of latitude 40, east of the Rockies. Bad crop weather is expected where these storms strike and good crop weather in all sections that they miss. Great storms during the crop season usually bring good crops as an average because of an abundance of rain and the great vigor of plant life because of the electro-magnetic elements of the storm forces.

Warm wave of next disturbance will reach vicinity of Vancouver near June 26, with rising temperature all along the Pacific slope. This warm wave will turn east, cross the crest of the Rockies by close of 27, planes sections 28, meridian 90, Great Lakes and Ohio valleys 29, eastern sections 30, reaching Newfoundland 31. Storm wave will follow about one day behind and cool wave two days behind the warm wave.

This will be a continuation of the general great storms described above, but this storm will be most severe on the Pacific slope and will begin to lose force as it nears the Atlantic coast. It will affect the whole continent, some places more in heat, others in very cool, other in hail or heavy rains or tornadoes and other sections in exceedingly bright and deep blue skies. Each of these weather features will go to great extremes during this great storm period covering June 20 to July 1.

A great change in weather conditions will come in with August. The forces that control our crop weather have been continuously very similar since the first of February, causing in a general way, cool, wet weather and later than usual in its effects on the crops. These bulletins gave a generally correct forecast of these conditions. But a radical change will come with August. The unusually cool weather features will disappear, storms will decrease in force and will follow more eastern and northern routes. This general condition will continue till the end of December. Details will be given later.

We will have experienced two years of this peculiar weather, but a great change is coming for 1917; a change that will require different methods in planting and sowing for the production of crops. We are preparing to thoroughly discuss these important weather events.

PICNIC NOTICE.

The Eagle is requested to announce that a picnic will be given on Tuesday, June 27, in the pasture of Wm. Manthel, two miles west of Kurten. There will be public speaking, baseball and other amusements. Everybody invited to come and bring well filled baskets.

SLEEPING CHILD WALKS EIGHT BLOCKS.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Orange, Texas, June 15.—Bruce, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Maxwell of this city, probably established a record for sleep walkers of his age. Leaving his bed at 1:15 a. m. Tuesday, he walked a distance of nearly eight city blocks. He awoke in front of a restaurant in the business district, screamed and ran for home, crying out at every step. A neighbor, E. A. DuChamp, saw the child leave the house and return; another man saw him at the moment of awakening. Besides, the little fellow gives a very intelligent account of affairs from the moment of awakening. He doesn't remember anything before that.

PAVING WORK GOES FORWARD

City Engineer Declares That the Best Curb and Gutter Work in the City Is Now Being Laid.

(From Saturday's Daily)

The paving work in the residence section of Bryan is going right forward, and with favorable weather, Mr. J. C. Jarrett of the Stegall & Jarrett contractors, says that it will only be a few days until a big showing will be made by them in their curb and gutter work. They have already completed on West Anderson Street 1200 feet of this work. In conversation with City Engineer A. S. Adams this morning he said these contractors were laying the best curbs and gutters that had ever been laid in the city. He said the work was perfect in every detail and that the City Council was very highly pleased with the work that these gentlemen are putting down. A large steam roller, a brand new one, belonging to the Kaw Paving Company, has been unloaded in the city and is ready for use. If there is a single resident of Bryan who thinks that the city is not coming out of the mud and slush we invite you to take a stroll out on West Anderson Street, where these paving men are at work. Not only the street is being paved, but in almost every instance where there is not already a nice four-foot sidewalk, they are being built, and those who are not having them built now have signified a willingness to do so before the contractors leave that part of the city. Curbs around yards are being built and some of the most beautiful concrete drives one ever saw are being put in which will go to beautify and enhance the value of property. Take a stroll out West Anderson and see the splendid work being done.

ROAD BUILDING BEING PUSHED

Ten Cars of Gravel Being Distributed Daily—Contractors Are Prepared for Twenty-five.

(From Monday's Daily)

The good road work in Brazos County is now progressing nicely and with favorable weather conditions it will only be a few weeks until Brazos County will have at least some of her pike roads completed. The announcement was made this morning at the office of the general contractors, Messrs. Hayden and Bates, that they are now putting ten carloads of gravel per day out on three roads that are being built, namely, Benchley, Madisonville and between College and Wellborn. The gravel is coming from the Yuma pit, about 15 miles south of the city. The announcement was also made that the contractors who are operating a big steam shovel at this gravel pit are in a position to put 25 carloads of gravel in the city every day just as soon as the roadbeds are prepared and the teams secured with which to unload the cars. The big steam shovel, the engine which runs the same, as well as the one which hauls the cars to the various distributing points are the property of Messrs. Hayden and Bates, and they are prepared to rush the work to completion if the teams and wagons can be secured.

Work on the Edge road has been temporarily suspended on account of lack of teams, but all available men and teams are rushing the work of the road from College to Rock Prairie and thence to Wellborn and back to College. When this strip of road is completed and the pavement is laid on the College road coming into the city, the autoists of Bryan will have one of the prettiest drives in the State. Going out by the College and to the left to Rock Prairie and thence to Wellborn and direct back to the city by the College, will be a distance of about twenty-five miles, with all piked and paved roads and will be over some of the best lands in the county.

YOUNG MAN HAS COLSE CALL.

Harry Crenshaw, who drives a delivery wagon for the Hensarling Mercantile Company, had a very narrow escape from either being killed or receiving some very serious injuries this morning about 9 o'clock when he lost control of the horse he was driving and the horse ran away with him. Young Crenshaw was turning the corner at Main and Caldwell streets and the horse became frightened and before he knew what had happened the horse had gotten beyond his control. He dashed down Main Street for about three blocks with Crenshaw holding him right in the middle of the street, and about the time he had him under control one of the tugs broke and the wagon skidded to the curb and turned over, throwing the young man to the paved street with violent force, but he was on his feet in a flash and said he was all right. As the wagon turned over it was dragged into a buggy hitched close by and overturned same but no damage was done. Outside of a pretty hard fall Crenshaw says he does not feel any bad effects from the accident.

TABOR TOPICS.

Well, we have been refreshed with more rain and corn, cotton and grass are growing fine. We hope that Brazos County will have an abundant corn crop, and that instead of farmers hauling corn out of Bryan, they will have to haul it to Bryan.

Church was largely attended at Cottonwood Sunday and Sunday night.

Alexander Choir met Sunday afternoon, reorganized and elected delegates for the convention. We hope that every choir in the county will be represented at the convention this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belk, from Teague, who have been visiting in Bryan, spent Saturday with relatives at Zack.

Mrs. Bob Broach and children have returned to their home at Somerville after visiting relatives at Tabor.

Miss Pearl Fullerton of Tabor is visiting in Lyons and Somerville.

The ladies of the Methodist Church of Alexander will give an ice cream supper at Tabor Hall next Friday night, June 16. Everybody is invited. Correspondent.

"Pop, are bald eagles a distinct variety?" "I can't say positively, my son, but I rather fancy a bald eagle is simply a married one."—Chicago Herald.

RUSSIAN ATTACKS WERE REPULSED

Czernowitz Has Not Fallen and Austrians Said to Have Checked Russian Advance.

(From Saturday's Daily)
(By Associated Press)

London, June 15.—The Russian troops attacked the German lines near Przewicka, but were repulsed, the German war office says, adding that the Austrian troops in Bukowina are making a stand north of Czernowitz and holding the Russians. East of the city the Russian attacks are said to have been repulsed.

The Germans are continuing the violent bombardment of the French positions north of Souville, the key to the inner defenses of Verdun, the French official statement says today.

ROOSEVELT NOT ILL.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Coughing Spell Due to Rib Broken a Year Ago, He Said.

New York, June 15.—Reports yesterday that Theodore Roosevelt was seriously ill apparently proved unfounded. He has been experiencing coughing spells recently, and in a statement late yesterday regarding an attack of pain while he was at a pier on the arrival of his son, Kermit, the colonel explained that this coughing probably had strained a ligament.

"One year ago," the colonel said, "I broke a rib when my horse fell and threw me. The coughing spells which I have had probably strained a ligament. It is ridiculous, but painful, so, like King George, I arch my neck and walk lightly."

The former president, after leaving the pier, appeared in the public dining room of his hotel with Mrs. Roosevelt and others, held a political conference with progressive leaders, Raymond Robins, who was chairman of the national committee, and Harold L. Ickles, national committeeman from Illinois.

Kermit Roosevelt has been in South America as representative of a New York bank.

HOW TO LAY BY CORN.

Laying-by is a term given the last plowing. If peas are sowed at this time, further cultivation is impossible. It is usually a better plan to sow the peas on the sides of the ridges, leaving space to work the middles with a one-horse harrow. Should rains occur during the summer, a crust is apt to form, therefore it is wiser to have the middles free for cultivation.

The old practice of stirring the soil deep and making high ridges is less prevalent each year. Farmers in many localities work their corn shallow until time for the last plowing, when the turn plow is used, making ridges a foot or eighteen inches high, nothing is more injurious. The moisture supply to the plant is decreased to such an extent that "firing" may be noticed in a few days. This always denotes need of water. Further, it generally occurs at a time when the plant needs water most. The early cultivation should be such as to help conserve soil water for this period of growth, and the good work done early in the season should not be destroyed by late barring off.—A. F. Kidder, in the Progressive Farmer.

GIVEN NEW DUTIES.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Mr. Levinson of the Interurban Will Also Manage Louisiana Line.

L. M. Levinson, manager and secretary of the Bryan & College Interurban Railway, and also manager for the receiver of the Bryan & Central Texas Railway, appointed to the latter position May 1, 1916, has been also appointed general manager of the Southwestern Traction & Power Company, with headquarters in New Iberia, La. The latter property is a 20-mile electric interurban railway operating between New Iberia, La., and Jeanerette, La., through the sugar and rice district of Southern Louisiana. He will take charge of the new property on June 16, but will continue to make his home and headquarters in Bryan, having a superintendent in charge of the road in Louisiana.

NEW MOWER FOR COURT HOUSE.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Due to the efforts of our genial county judge, J. T. Maloney, a brand new horse-drawn lawn mower is in operation this morning on the court house lawn. Mr. Maloney is a man of much civic pride and says that he likes to see things around him look good. The court house lawn will be kept in first class condition with the new mower.

STEAMER BEACHED, PASSENGERS SAVED

Went on Rocks Near Eureka, Cal., and the 201 Passengers Were Saved by a Tug.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Eureka, Cal., June 15.—All of the 201 passengers of the steamer Bear, which was beached on Cape Mendocino near here last night, have been rescued by the tug Relief this morning, according to advices received here. When the steamer went ashore the captain ordered her abandoned and the crew and passengers took to the boats. The night was spent on the water.

Hope for Safety of All.

(By Associated Press)

Eureka, Cal., June 15.—At 10:30 today 82 survivors of the Bear had been accounted for. The indications are that every one else had been or would be rescued.

Five Bodies Recovered.

Five bodies have been recovered from the steamer Bear, wrecked last night off Cape Mendocino, according to a message from the light house keeper there. Most of the 201 passengers were first reported safe. Two boats are missing, from one of which five were lost.

SMITH-M'ALPINE.

A beautiful home wedding, sweet and sacred in its every feature, was solemnized Monday at 12:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McAlpine, when their beautiful daughter, Miss Delia McAlpine, was given in marriage to Mr. J. C. Smith. Rev. J. M. Bullock was the celebrant, and the ring service was used.

The home was beautifully adorned for the occasion, with a profusion of lovely blossoms, trailing vines and foliage plants.

In the parlor the bride and groom pronounced their marriage vows at an improvised altar built of palms and ferns and on either side shasta daisies filled white pedestal baskets, tied with maline. To complete the scene of loveliness, a canopy of ferns and daisies was formed which the young couple stood beneath.

Just before the ceremony Mr. Langston Spell sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Ima Lee Peck, who immediately after the song sent forth the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Little Miss Morine Cox of Buffalo, the ring bearer, was first to enter, then came the two bridesmaids, Miss Ellen Sanders, attired in white organdy, and Miss Mammie Mitchell of Lampasas, gowned in pink taffeta, each carrying arm bouquets of shasta daisies and ferns tied with white maline. Following came the bride and groom. The bride wore a white cloth coat suit with hat and accessories to match. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's rose and fern.

During the ceremony and prayer the pianist played in soft undertone exquisite selections of appropriate music.

When the solemn marriage vows had been spoken, the newly wedded couple were given hearty and loving good wishes for a long and happy life together.

The wedding gifts were many and beautiful, and evidenced the loving good wishes of many friends of the young couple in this and other cities over the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately for a week's visit in Austin and are now at home to their friends at the home of Mrs. Samantha Dansby, pleted the Kaw Paving Company, who have the contract for the paving, will start their part of the work. All the concrete bridges on this road have been completed and the grading is now going on.

The work in progress is not only the best improvement that has ever been attempted in the county but it is affording work for hundreds of men who otherwise would be out of employment.

EDITOR TURNER HERE.

Editor W. L. Turner of the Madisonville Meteor and N. Y. Wycough, also of Madisonville, were in Bryan for a short while today, making the trip over by automobile. Editor Turner was a pleasant caller at The Eagle office and says that during this week he has made trips through Madison, Walker, Grimes, Leon and Brazos counties and everywhere the crops are looking fine. He expects the largest crops made in several years, barring destruction of the cotton by boll weevils, which are already making themselves felt.

MAKE NOMINATIONS AT EIGHT TONIGHT

Committee on Rules Made This Recommendation to the Convention Today.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—Chairman Glynn called the convention to order at 11:46 this morning. The committee on rules voted unanimously to recommend to the convention that nominations be made tonight at 8 o'clock.

Demonstration for Wilson.

(By Associated Press)

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—The permanent officers named were immediately appointed and Committeeman James of Kentucky started his speech. He was interrupted by an 18-minute demonstration when he recounted President Wilson's German diplomatic victory. When he mentioned the horrors of war, W. J. Bryan flushed with emotion, rose from his seat and applauded. There were insistent cries for Bryan when James finished. It was agreed that nominations would be made at 9 o'clock tonight and the convention adjourned to that hour.

At Work on Platform.

(By Associated Press)

St. Louis, June 15.—With a copy of Wilson's suggestion for planks in their hands, every member of the subcommittee on resolutions started on the actual framing of the democratic platform. They did not expect to be ready before tonight.

Successor to McCombs.

(By Associated Press)

CULBERSON WILL REMAIN AT POST

Letter to a Friend in Marlin Clearly Stated Need and His Response to Duty.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Marlin, Texas, June 15.—In a letter to his friend, Dr. G. P. Reeves of Marlin, United States Senator Culberson says he will remain at his post in Washington to assist the administration in passing needed legislation, and his candidacy for re-election will be left to his friends.

Among other things Senator Culberson says: "Aside from the question of sufficient strength to campaign the State, it will be impracticable for me to do so in view of the demands upon my time here in Washington, as congress will be in session very probably until after the primaries. I feel in duty bound to remain here and render what assistance I can toward the passage of legislation called for by the administration, and the exigencies of the situation."

One of the most certain things of the campaign is that Senator Culberson is gaining strength in this section, if, in fact, his political force has ever been on the decline. To prove the senator's inability to properly attend to the duties of his office, many voters here prefer a certificate from a reputable physician rather than the assertions of certain politicians and office seekers. It is conceded that Senator Culberson hasn't the health and strength to make a very swift cornfield hand, but his many friends contend that his constant presence and work in congress shows that he is abundantly able in every way to render his country the best of service in helping to make laws and shape the nation's destiny.

EVER SALAVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel Is Quicksilver and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50c a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and cannot salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.
